

K-LOVE radio station serves the best interest of my community because it offers commercial free christian radio programming that provides community service info as well as outreach info for those in need. They are the only contemporary christian music station we have access to in our area.